St. James's, December 2.

THE following Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Rev. Richard Farmer, D. D. the Vice-Chancellor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars of the Univerſity of Cambridge, in full Senate aſſembled, think it our Duty at this alarming Criſis to approach your Throne with the deepeſt and moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings, which, through the Diſpenſation of the Divine Providence, we have participated with our Fellow-Subjects under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign.

Anxious for the Continuance of thoſe Bleſſings in every Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, and animated with the warmeſt Loyalty and Affection for your Royal Perſon and Government, we cannot remain ſilent Spectators of the unnatural Rebellion, into which many of our Brethren in your Majeſty's American Colonies have been unhappily ſeduced. We ſee their Deluſion with equal Indignation and Concern: We diſclaim the Opinions on which they proceed, as deſtructive of the happieſt Conſtitution, that hath ever exiſted in the Hiſtory of Mankind, and ſubverſive of all Order and good Government: Yet we pity their Infatuation, and lament the Miſeries which it is neceſſarily bringing upon them.

Relying with full Confidence on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Tenderneſs, and convinced that You will purſue every Method, conſiſtent with the Dignity of Government and the Preſervation of the Conſtitution, to prevent, as much as poſſible, the Effuſion of Blood, and to reſtore due Obedience and Peace; we fervently implore Heaven to bleſs your Majeſty's Counſels with Succeſs; ſo that the Crown and Dominions of this Realm may be tranſmitted with undiminiſhed Luſtre to your Majeſty's remoteſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by George Wombwell, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Earl of Sandwich, Recorder of the ſaid Borough, and Lord Viſcount Hinchingbrook, one of the Aldermen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Royal Perſon, to offer to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgements for the wiſe Meaſures you have taken to enforce the Legiſlative Authority of the Parliament of Great-Britain over all your extenſive Dominions.

To beſeech your Majeſty to uſe every Conſtitutional Effort to bring your rebellious Subjects in America to acknowledge their paſt Errors, and to ſubmit to that legal Authority, which they have dared to reſiſt, with the moſt unprovoked and violent Outrages.

Our Offer of contributing Aid towards reducing the Colonies to Obedience, by deſiring your Majeſty to diſpoſe of our Lives and Fortunes, is, we are ſenſible, but of very little Importance to the Completion of ſo great a Work; but we can only offer our All: And we flatter ourſelves that we may ſay with Truth, that none of your Majeſty's Subjects exceed us in Loyalty to your Sacred Perſon, or in Abhorrence of the vile Machinations of thoſe Diſturbers of the Publick Tranquillity, who, by various Means, have given Encouragement to the deluded Coloniſts to hope for Succeſs in what we are convinced is their principal Object, the Eſtabliſhing themſelves in an Independency of the Mother-Country.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Richard Clayton, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, chants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan, with all dutiful Reſpect beg Leave to approach the Throne to teſtify our unalterable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, at a Time when a moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion hath made its Appearance in your Majeſty's Dominions in America.

Fully ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy, in common with the Reſt of our Fellow-Subjects, under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, we cannot without Horror look on every Attempt to diſturb the ſame.

With all the Attention we are capable of, we have conſidered whatever our deluded Brethren have urged to palliate the Violences they have been guilty of.—We have weighed every Argument that has been offered by the Advocates they have unfortunately met with in this Country.—On the matureſt Deliberation we cannot find any Ground for the outrageous Steps they have already taken, and we are loſt in Wonder and Aſtoniſhment at their Conduct, who have been ſo far forgetful of their Duty to the beſt of Kings, as to endeavour to juſtify ſuch Proceedings.

We lament that your Majeſty's Mildneſs and Clemency have hitherto had no good Effect on the Minds of your infatuated Subjects in America; but we cannot help thinking this has been in ſome Degree owing to the Artifices of a Faction in this Kingdom, that has contributed to keep up the Spirit of Diſſenſion; and, to ſerve private Views, hath not ſcrupled to ſacrifice the public Intereſt.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that Trade has not, in our Neighbourhood, ſuffered any Diminution or Decay;—that our Manufactures flouriſh in the fulleſt Extent;—and that we are under no Apprehenſion from any Efforts that may be made to leſſen or diſtreſs them.

In your Majeſty and the Great Council of the Nation we repoſe an entire and implicit Confidence; and we ſhall zealouſly acquieſce in whatever Meaſures may be thought neceſſary to ſupport the Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Conſtitutional Rights and Authority of this Country over every Part of the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The following Addreſs of the Recorder, Alderman, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Town of Axbridge in the County of Somerſet, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Hotchkin, Eſq; Recorder of the ſaid Town, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and Mr. Hotchkin had the Honour to kiſe His Majeſty's Hand.

The dutiful Addreſs of the Recorder, Alderman, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Axbridge in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when we think every Individual, who has enjoyed the Happineſs of your Majeſty's paternal Care, ſhould ſtand forth in Vindication of thoſe Meaſures, which we doubt not are the Reſult of ſound and good Policy, however miſrepreſented by wicked, deſigning, and factious Men, receive, Sire, this dutiful Addreſs of your Majeſty's antient and loyal Corporation of the Borough of Axbridge, who lament, even unto Sadneſs, that, at a Time when the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms had gained, and the Wiſdom of your Councils had taught us to look up to the Bleſſings of a long and laſting Peace, a Set of Patricides ſhould have ariſen up among your own People, who wiſh to deſtroy that Happineſs of which they cannot partake; Men, whoſe Circumſtances being wretched, whoſe Expectations ſtill worſe, hope to gain from Anarchy and Confuſion that Relief, which Decency and Order never can afford them.

The Conduct of your Majeſty's American Subjects is painful to the Feelings of the Human Heart; that thoſe who ought to have been the firſt to have ſtood forth to vindicate the Honour of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Happineſs of their Fellow-Subjects in Great-Britain, ſhould wantonly and unprovoked exert the firſt Efforts of their Strength to wound the Breaſt which warmed them into the Power to hurt, is an Extreme of Wickedneſs unknown to paſt Times and Countries.

Senſible of the Bleſſings we have ourſelves enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt excellent Government; truſting that our Poſterity may be as happy and bleſſed in your Royal Deſcendants as we have been in you; May it pleaſe your Majeſty to be aſſured of our inviolable Attachment and Loyalty to your Perſon and Family.

Family, and to our preſent Conſtitution both in Church and State; for the Support of which we will moſt chearfully contribute every Aſſiſtance in our Power; conſcious that whatever we may advance will be received as humble Dews from the Earth, and returned in Showers of Plenty and Increaſe.

We are, may it pleaſe your Majeſty,

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of the Land-Tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in Quarter Seſſions aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by William Stewart, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of Peace, Freeholders and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax for the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, in Quarter-Seſſions aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with the deepeſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we cannot help teſtifying our Abhorrence of thoſe Attempts which are made to diſturb it's Tranquillity by our rebellious Fellow-Subjects in North America.

Warmly attached to our ineſtimable Conſtitution, it is our earneſt Wiſh that every Part of it may be preſerved inviolate: To attain this great End, it appears to us an indiſpenſible Requiſite, that the Supremacy of the Britiſh Legiſlature be aſſerted over every Part of the Empire.

With ſuch Sentiments as theſe, we muſt expreſs our Diſapprobation of the Principles of thoſe Men, who make Britiſh Liberty to conſiſt in an undiſtinguiſhed Oppoſition to every Meaſure of Adminiſtration: The fatal Effects of a Conduct reſulting from ſuch Principles are now ſeverely felt by the miſguided Coloniſts on the other Side of the Atlantic.

We lament and pity the Miſchiefs which evil Councils, Licentiouſneſs, and a factious Spirit have produced among a deluded People. But ſince conciliatory Propoſals have been diſregarded, and Mildneſs and Forbearance conſtrued into Timidity, we humbly apprehend that vigorous Meaſures are now become abſolutely neceſſary to bring back theſe ungrateful Children to a proper Senſe of their Duty to their Mother Country. Being fully perſuaded that theſe Meaſures will be ſuch as are conſiſtent with the Honour, the Dignity, and the Liberty of Britons, we will ſupport them with our Lives and Fortunes.

We cannot conclude without expreſſing a Wiſh, that undiſquieted by Faction, and undiſturbed by Rebellion, your Majeſty may long continue to reign over the Hearts of your People.

Signed by Order, and in Preſence of the Court,
Will. Gordon, Preſes.

Kirkcudbright, November 21, 1775.

St. James's, November 28, 1775.

IT is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, That all Officers belonging to His Majeſty's 33d Regiment of Foot, now ſerving in Ireland, do immediately repair to their Corps in that Kingdom, except ſuch as belong to the Additional Companies of that Regiment, or may be employed in Ireland on the Recruiting Service.

WEYMOUTH.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d Day of November, 1775,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Orders in Council of the 23d of Auguſt and 27th of September laſt, for prohibiting the exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire on the 23d of this Inſtant November; and whereas it is judged expedient that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer, except in thoſe Caſes where (for the Benefit and Advantage of Trade, and for the Uſe and Defence of Ships trading to Foreign Parts) His Majeſty, by His ſeveral Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October laſt, and of the 6th of this Inſtant, has thought proper to permit and allow the Exportation of, and carrying Coaſtwiſe, Gunpowder, Saltpetre, Arms and Ammunition, under certain Conditions and Reſtrictions mentioned in the ſaid Orders:—His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit, and Command, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (except the Maſter-General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majeſty's Service) do at any Time, during the Space of Three Months, to commence from the ſaid 23d of this Inſtant November, preſume to tranſport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ſhip or lade any Gunpowder, Saltpetre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, except in the Caſes comprized within the aforementioned Orders in Council of the 13th and 27th of October laſt, and 6th of this Inſtant November, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty, or his Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the reſpective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of "Saltpetre, and to enforce the Law for empowering "His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and alſo "to empower His Majeſty to reſtrain the carrying "Coaſtwiſe of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of "Arms or Ammunition."—And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 6th Day of November, 1775,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHereas there was this Day read at the Board, a Report from a Committee of the Lords of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, dated the 4th of this Inſtant, upon conſidering a Repreſentation from the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, propoſing, That all Ships and Veſſels clearing out for the Coaſt of Africa for Trade, ſhould be permitted to take on Board and Export ſuch Quantities of Gunpowder, and military Stores, as ſhall be neceſſary for their reſpective Voyages; His Majeſty, taking the ſaid Report into Conſideration, is pleaſed, with the Advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that all Ships and Veſſels clearing out for the Coaſt of Africa, for the Purpoſe of carrying on the Trade for Slaves, Ivory, and Gold, be permitted to take on Board, as an aſſorted Part of their Cargoes, as much Gunpowder, and as large a Quantity of trading Guns, Piſtols, Cutlaſſes, Flints and Lead Balls, Bars and Shot, as the Exporters ſhall think neceſſary, provided that ſufficient Security be given to the Principal Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms of the Port in which they are fitted out, and before they proceed upon their reſpective Voyages, in Treble the Value of the Articles ſo exported, that the ſame ſhall be expended in Trade upon the Coaſt of Africa; which Security is not to be cancelled, until Proof of ſuch Expenditure has been made by the Oath of the Captain or Maſter of the Ship of Veſſel, in like Manner as is practiſed with regard to Spirits and Eaſt India Goods, uſed in carrying on that Trade: and His Majeſty is further pleaſed to order, that all Ships and Veſſels trading to the ſaid Coaſt, be allowed to take on Board for their Defence, whatever Quantity of Carriage Guns, Swivels and Small Arms ſhall be judged proper by the reſpective Maſters thereof; provided that no greater Quantity be taken on board any one Ship for her Defence than twelve Carriage-Guns and Twelve Swivels, together with one Muſket or Blunderbuſs, one Pair of Piſtols, and one Cutlaſs, for every Perſon of which the Ship's Company ſhall conſiſt, and Ammunition in Proportion; provided that ſufficient Security be in the like Manner firſt given to the ſaid Principal Officers of the Cuſtoms at the Ports where the Ships ſhall be fitted out, in Treble the Value thereof, to bring back the Carriage-Guns, Swivels, and Small Arms, ſo taken on Board for the Defence of the Ships, when the Voyage is compleated; and to account upon Oath for the Expenditure of the Ammunition: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury are to give the neceſſary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Blair.

Moſcow, October 30, N. S. The Empreſs's propoſed Journey to Columna took Place on Tueſday laſt. Her Imperial Majeſty was attended in this Excurſion by the Marſhals Romanzow, Roſamowſky, and Czernichew, and Count Ivan. Her Majeſty was entertained on the Road at two different Houſes of Count Cheremeteff's, and returned hither on Friday laſt. Whether from the Fatigue of the Journey, or the Unwholeſomneſs of the preſent damp Weather, her Imperial Majeſty has been ſo much indiſpoſed as to be obliged to keep her Room Yeſterday, in Conſequence of which there was no Court in the Evening.

Eſcurial, November 9. By Accounts from Carthagena, we are informed that the Powder Magazine, at half a League Diſtance from that City, containing between three and four Thouſand Quintals, was on the 2d Inſtant blown up by Lightning, with the Guard, which conſiſted of ſeven Soldiers. Several Houſes in the Country were ſhaken by the Exploſion, and all the Windows broken in Carthagena.

Stockholm, November 10. Three Ordinances have been lately publiſhed relative to the Diſtillation of Grain: It is now determined that the Diſtillation of Spirits ſhall be undertaken on the Account of the Crown.

Copenhagen, November 21. A Placart is this Day publiſhed, prohibiting the Diſtillation of Brandy from Rye throughout Denmark, this Capital included; and, in Conſequence of it, the Privilege granted in the Year 1774 to the Diſtillers of Copenhagen, is to be henceforward ſuſpended.

A Royal Ordinance, dated the 13th Inſtant, has appeared, by which the Importation of all foreign Cattle into the Dutchies of Sleſwyck and Holſtein, the Lordſhip of Pinneberg, City of Altona, and County of Rantzau, is abſolutely prohibited, on Pain of Confiſcation.

Bruſſells, November 28. The Board of Finances have lately publiſhed an Ordinance, by which the Deduction of Ten per Cent. on the Duties of all Wines imported, (which has hitherto been allowed as an Equivalent for Leakage) is taken away from all Wines entering Brabant by the Schelde.

St. James's, December 15.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto the preſent Maſter, Governors, and Aſſiſtants of the Scottiſh Hoſpital of the Foundation of King Charles II. His Licence to erect an Hoſpital in ſome convenient Place within London or Weſtminſter, or the Liberties thereof, which ſhall in future be called, The Scottiſh Hoſpital of the Foundation of King Charles II.; and to ordain, that the ſaid Corporation ſhall hereafter have One Preſident, Six Vice-Preſidents, and One Treaſurer, (to be Annually elected) and ſuch a Number of Governors as ſhall pay and continue to pay ſuch Annual Sum or Sums as, under a Bye-Law of the ſaid Corporation, ſhall be declared qualified, and be appointed to that Office.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto John Saint John, Eſq; the Office of Surveyor-General of all His Majeſty's Honors, Caſtles, Lordſhips, Manors, Foreſts, Chaces, Parks, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Woods, Rents, Services, Revenues, Poſſeſſions, and Hereditaments whatſoever, in England and Wales, in the Room of Peter Burrell, Eſq; deceaſed.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto George Hall, Eſq; the Office of Comptroller of His Majeſty's Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt, and of all the Vouchers and Accounts relating thereto, in the Room of Francis Burton, Eſq;

War Office, December 1, 1775.

The Lord Viſcount Barrington, His Majeſty's Secretary at War, has appointed Matthew Lewis, Eſq; to be his Deputy, in the room of Anthony Chamier, Eſq;

St. James's, November 30, 1775.

WHereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That on Sunday the 12th Inſtant, about Eight o'Clock in the Evening, a large Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Twenty or thereabouts, all on Horſeback, being armed with large Clubs and other offenſive Weapons, and having Bale Goods loaded on ſeveral of their Horſes, were paſſing through Stockwell in the County of Surry, when they were met by William Newby and Joſeph Watſon, two of the Officers of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and three others their Aſſiſtants, who attempted to make Seizure of the ſaid Horſes and Goods, in which they were violently aſſaulted, oppoſed, and reſiſted, and, in the due Execution of their Office, were maimed and wounded, and ſeveral of the Horſes, with the Goods laden thereon, reſcued from them after Seizure.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Offence, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall diſcover and apprehend, or cauſe to be diſcovered and apprehended, any one or more of the ſaid Offenders; to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms,

Customs, upon Conviction, over and above any other Reward to which he or they may by Law be intitled.

And if any of the said Offenders do and shall, within one Month from the Date hereof, discover two or more of his Accomplices, so that they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence, the Offender or Offenders so discovering shall have and receive the like Reward of Fifty Pounds, for every such Offender so discovered and convicted, to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction.

Edw. Stanley, Secretary.

St. James's, November 18, 1775.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of Mr. Richard Sandford, Baker, in Winchester-street in Broad street Ward, London, for several Sundays past has been attempted to be broken open by Robbers, upon which Account a Guard was placed with Fire-Arms in the House; and that, on Sunday last, the same Attempt being again made about Six in the Evening, and the House entered, the said Guard shot the Foremost of the Gang: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in breaking open and entering the said House, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except such of them as have returned from Transportation) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, for the Discovery and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons concerned in the said Burglary, a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS is promised to any Person or Persons who shall make Discovery of any concerned therein (except as before excepted) to be paid on Conviction by the Alderman of the Ward, or his Deputy: The Parish of Allhallows, London Wall, do likewise hereby promise a Reward of TEN POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the said Parish, upon Conviction as above.

November 25, 1775.

AS by Death and Resignations there are several Vacancies in the Cambridgeshire Militia of Officers in various Ranks, His Majesty's Lieutenant for that County hereby gives Notice, and desires that all Gentlemen who are qualified, and willing to take Commissions, may (in Pursuance of the Acts of Parliament for regulating the Militia) send in their Names either to himself in St. James's-square, or to the next General Quarter Sessions for the said County, specifying the Rank in which they are inclined to serve.

HARDWICKE.

Ramsgate Harbour, November 29, 1775.

THE Trustees for Enlarging, Building, and Maintaining the said Harbour, do hereby give Notice, that their next Meeting will be held at the Office of the Corporation for the Merchants Seamen over the Royal Exchange, on Wednesday the 20th of December next, at One o'Clock precisely; when they will state one Cash Account of Receipts and Payments, and one General Revenue Account, agreeable to the Directions in the Act of Parliament for that Purpose. And they do hereby further give Notice, that the said Accounts shall lie open for the Public Inspection of all and every Person or Persons, with their Secretary, at the Old South Sea House, in Broad-Street, London, for the Space of six Days after such Meeting. Will. Evans, Secretary.

The Country Creditors, who have not yet proved their Debts, are deſired to tranſmit their Affidavits to Mr. Marſhall, Attorney, Hatton-garden.

WHereas a Commiſſion of Bankrupt, bearing Date on or about the 20th Day of June, 1775, was awarded and iſſued againſt John Sadler, of the Pariſh of Painſwick in the County of Glouceſter, Clothier; This is to give Notice, that the ſaid Commiſſion is, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, ſuperſeded.

AT a Meeting of the Creditors of Peter Stewart, Bleacher, at Glencroſs in the County of Mid-Lothian, Scotland, held upon the 11th of October, 1775, in conſequence of previous Advertiſements, as authorized by Statute, they unanimouſly elected John Grant, Merchant in Leith, to be Truſtee; in whom, by the Minutes of the Meeting, and ſubſequent Order of the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, the whole perſonal Eſtate of the ſaid Peter Stewart is now veſted for the Benefit of the Creditors.

The Truſtee therefore, in Terms of the Statute, and of the Minutes of the ſaid Meeting, hereby requires all the Creditors of the ſaid Peter Stewart to give into him their reſpective Claims, in order that a State of the Debts may be prepared by him; certifying all ſuch Creditors, who ſhall not produce their Claims, with the Vouchers thereof, with their reſpective Oaths of Verity upon the ſame, in Terms of Law, within Nine Calendar Months after the 22d Day of Auguſt laſt, being the Date of the Sequeſtration, ſhall not be entitled to any Share in the firſt Diſtribution of the Debtor's Eſtate among the Creditors.

WHereas a Commiſſion of Bankrupt is awarded and iſſued forth againſt Awdry Longden, now or late of the Pariſh of Winterbourne Baſſett in the County of Wilts, Dealer in Horſes, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to ſurrender himſelf to the Commiſſioners in the ſaid Commiſſion named, or the major Part of them, on the 15th and 16th Days of December inſtant, and on the 13th Day of January next, at Ten in the Forenoon on each Day, at the Black Bear Inn, in the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts, and make a full Diſcovery and Diſcloſure of his Eſtate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the Second Sitting to chuſe Aſſignees, and at the laſt Sitting the ſaid Bankrupt is required to finiſh his Examination, and the Creditors are to aſſent to or diſſent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Perſons indebted to the ſaid Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the ſame but to whom the Commiſſioners ſhall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Wadham Locke the Younger, Attorney, in Devizes.

THE Commiſſioners in a Commiſſion of Bankrupt awarded and iſſued forth againſt John Botwirk, of Little Knight-rider-Street, London, Dealer and Chapman, intend to meet on the 2d Day of January next, at Five in the Afternoon, at Guildhall, London, in order to make a Dividend of the ſaid Bankrupt's Eſtate and Effects; when and where the Creditors, who have not already proved their Debts, are to come prepared to prove the ſame, or they will be excluded the Benefit of the ſaid Dividend. And all Claims not then proved will be diſallowed.
